Dedication

When today's seniors were freshmen, a new teacher came to PHS. After four hectic years, that teacher is one of the busiest persons around our school. Through his tireless sponsorship of school clubs, publications, and events, as well as through his regular teaching duties, this man has left a profound impression on all he has met. His wide interests flavored by his unique wit make him a person long to be remembered. It is the small part of the staff to dedicate the 1960 PANTHER to

Mr. George C. Bosworth.

The Senior Play

Cheaper by the Dozen

The play ends on a somber note as Dad leaves for the last time.

Mart and Ern weave a tangled web as they decide that Ann should pass her test with waving colors.

Ann does some tall explaining about how those nails and broken bottles got in the driveway to wreck Larry's borrowed motorcycle.
